Social Media:

JDKC encourages participation in online social media in a positive manner. The accessible nature of the internet however, can lead itself to the posting of threatening and derogatory material in the heat of the moment. Once your thoughts and comments are published to the internet they are visible to the world and they are permanent. JDKC takes all cases of cyber bullying seriously and will treat online matters as it would "real world" bullying: *Breaching the code of conduct or brining the sport into disrepute online can lead to serious consequences, including tribunals, suspensions and the cancellation of the offender's Dirt Karting of Australia licence. * If you have questions about what constitutes acceptable content, please contact DKA secretary at secretary@aidka.com.au for advice. Jennacubbine Dirt Kart Club remind all members you run by the AIDKA code of conduct at all AIDKA sanctioned events as well as the Jennacubbine Dirt Kart Club's code of conduct.
